

I did not want my daughter to be a nurse.

It is no job for a fine lady

F

I had to send so many letters back to England to get the things we needed in the hospital

F

My daughter used to mix herbs with me to help people who were ill

M

I had to set up a shop to sell food and other useful things to the soldiers so that I could get some money

M

She was so brave because she came right out to the battle to bandage up my wounds

M

She was a terrible bossy woman. How dare she try to tell me how to run my hospital!

F

She used to walk around the hospital at night to make sure we were alright

F

She was a clever lady who knew how to improve hospitals

F

She used herbs to help heal men's wounds

M

She was a large lady who wore bright clothes
